

Elite Touch Renovation 2026 Action Items

- Convert old mobile phone bathroom photos using Ai to good quality images like a magazine, see eMail for instructions
- Send copy of a real quote in word or PDF format that we can let someone download and look at + scope of work or other documentation you give to clients so we can use as a sample so we can provide transparency.
- Pro photos of the team in uniform with logo / style that matches the vehicle signage
- Pro photos of the team with the vehicle as in pulling gear out or looking at plans, something to show you working on site
- Pro photos of the team on job site all working and/or holding tools looking ready to work and/or talking to a client/s
- Photos individual head shots chest up, smiling/happy
- Videos of finished bathrooms to compliment the photos, go the extra step with this to match competitors so video can be shown on website and socials
- Google - log into your account for Google My Business and make sure the correct logo is set and also set the feature image to be a bathroom or a team photo you can do this in the back end settings.

Change the introduction text so it doesn't have any icons it simply describes you provide a bathroom renovation service in Sydney. Take some of the text from the draft pages

- If you aren't going to do videos on site talking about jobs and how you work etc while holding your phone like all the other tradies then consider deleting this. Worse case if you keep it you show videos of finished bathrooms but make sure the name / phone number / email / description is the same as the other social profiles <https://www.tiktok.com/@Elitetouchrenovation>
- Change the header photo to just be a bathroom nothing else. Change the intro to simply say you do bathroom renovations and take text from draft website text. Make sure name / phone number / email / description is the same as the other social profiles <https://www.linkedin.com/company/elite-touch-renovation-pty-ltd>
- Make sure name / phone number / email / description is the same as the other social profiles and focus on bathroom renovation. Delete the post about the logo, delete any posts about packages etc just focus on content that are finished bathrooms. Do new posts for each project you shared the photos for and use some of the text you wrote out to explain the job that was done to make this profile very visual <https://www.instagram.com/elitetouchrenovations/>
- Make sure name / phone number / email / description is the same as the other social profiles and get the content consistent with instagram visually. If you convert this to a business profile it is easier to share from insta to facebook, you might be able to do it now even with this profile to make sharing easier <https://www.facebook.com/people/Elite-Touch-Renovations/100068012162691/>

- Make sure name / phone number / email / description is the same as the other social profiles and get rid of any videos that are promotional / salesy just focus on finished bathrooms
<https://www.youtube.com/@EliteTouchRenovations>
- A short founder video (30–60 seconds) from one of the Dawoods talking about why the family started the business. Mohammed will be good at this he is not shy on camera
- This request from the about page will not work
 - Google just released another huge algorithm update in May (read here)
 - Just mentioning a suburb in text on one random page will not help you get found in any of those suburbs, everyone would be doing it if it were that easy
 - To get found in every suburb requires a Google Business Profile listing in that area plus pages of content related to the suburb itself
 - Lots of businesses have been gaming the system over the years but this will change now Ai answers most search queries

Notes

- Look and feel of the brand isn't consistent across all platforms
- Posts aren't the same on all social profiles
- Stop writing promotional posts, focus on educating, explaining, taking people on a journey
- Chiswick reel shows waterproofing but not finished bathroom?
- LinkedIn add headshot, make it look/feel professional business page & then staff
- All social pages remove any post asking to 'visit our website' or screenshots of website etc, focus on showcasing work completed
- Get rid of coming soon posts, nobody cares lol :-)
- No posts on Google My Business
- Change 'exterior' photo of Google My Business
- Add services to Google My Business

Google Ad Campaign April

- 900 impressions, 72 clicks, 0 conversions
- Total spend so far is $660, $9 cost per click
- Directing traffic to the homepage and the package deal page
<https://elitetouchrenovations.au/packages-deals/>
- Feedback;
 - I think you could try another 10 different Google Ad contractors and have the same problem
 - Home page; you are making people do all the hard work and it is all the same stuff people can see on another 200 bathroom renovator websites
 - Package page; there are no packages just generic information and 'from' pricing so no surprise that it isn't convincing
 - Getting traffic / visitors to your website isn't the challenge, this can be done with Google or Meta Ads and/or SEO and/or content creation. The challenge is presenting something believable that converts

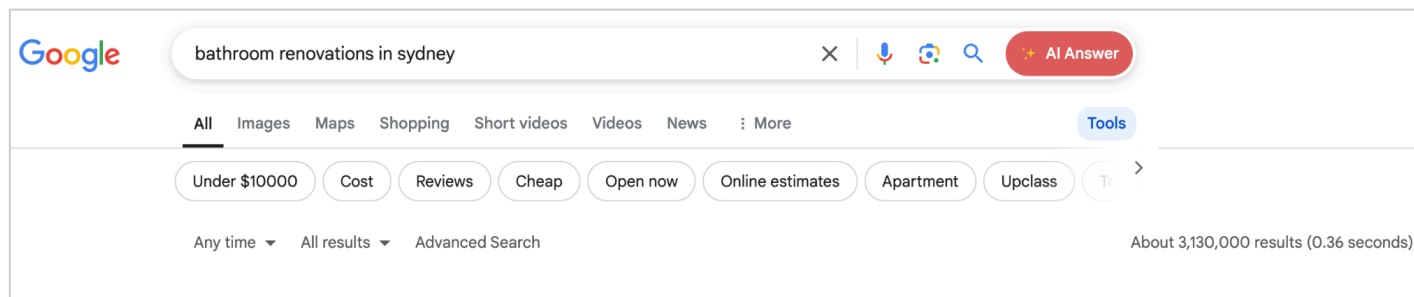

Marketing scenario

- My dad has 25 years of experience, and I'm a licensed builder with solid construction experience after working with a builder for three years. Together, we make a great team—his tiling expertise and my building skills allow us to offer complete bathroom renovations. We want to grow the business while shifting my dad into a supervisory role, so he doesn't have to be on the tools all the time. Ok, this story isn't being told/shared that anyone can see
- What's working really well for us right now is;
 - the quality of our work Ok, but how is that being shown & proven beyond final flashy videos on social media?
 - the strong reputation we've built. Ok but how are you able to prove that, what about video testimonials?
- Target customer: Our ideal customer is a homeowner who's looking to renovate their bathroom and cares about quality and attention to detail.

- USP (unique selling proposition):
 - 25 years of tiling experience, in-house tiling experience which help with bathroom renos Ok but how and why and where is this being highlighted to people? This isn't really a USP as other companies may have this too
 - licensed builder This isn't really a USP as other companies may have this too
 - we handle everything from design to completion This isn't really a USP as other companies may have this too
 - always focusing on quality and attention to detail. This isn't really a USP as other companies promise this as well
 - we include bathroom accessories in our three packages This isn't really a USP as other companies do this as well
 - 10-year warranty from our trusted supplier This isn't really a USP as other companies provide this and it is also law to provide warranty of some form
 - we're committed to sustainability. For every project we complete, we plant a tree, helping to make a positive impact on the environment. This mission is reflected in the green theme of our website, which shows how much we care about both quality work and the planet. This isn't believable, where is proof that this is happening. Do you use sustainable materials
 - Being a family-run business, we really focus on personalised service. This isn't really a USP as there are hundreds of other renovators offering the same
 - We treat every project like it's our own home, and we're driven by the goal of building something meaningful—for our clients, our family, and the future. This isn't really a USP and how are you proving this?
- Business focus: For now focusing only on bathroom renovations Ok so why does the service page mention lots of other things

- Locations:
 - All Sydney or
 - Eastern Suburbs
 - North Shore
 - Inner West
 - Northern Beaches
 - Hills District
 - Northern suburbs (Ryde, penent hills. Hunter Hills , Gladesville, beecroft, carlingford ect).

Ok there are potentially 3,130,000 website results for that search, that is how competitive it is to get found

There are more than 20,000 searches per month for bathroom related things in Sydney

- Marketing budget: $700-$1000 per month
- Advertising budget: $1000+ per month
- Problems;
 - Help with is lead generation to grow our bathroom renovation business.
 - We're looking to expand from just tiling to offering full bathroom renovations.
 - Crystal Marketing I worked with him for a month at the end of the month he gets back to me and say the google results where really bad and I don't think I can help you which was not great to hear I said no worries thanks!!.
 - Second guy I spent over 2k in google ads over doing performance max and I got over 100k impression and around 3k clicks but not results!!
 - Third guy I am actually still working with that's why I was a bit late to book this but the thing is he is from Melbourne and has no previous experience with bathroom renovation.
- Questions: You said I am not confident your Web can generate leads how can you help to solve this issue please?
